

Teaching Advanced Piano Course

Explore strategies to help your advanced students realize their full musical potential through increased awareness of performance practice and by empowering them to become independent musicians.

Learn from master teachers including...

- Andrew Hisey
- James Anagnoson
- John Perry
- Alexina Louie

Study from the comfort of home

Cohorts of 20-25 Students

Cost: $499
(payment plan available)

Course Features

- 14 Video Demonstrations
- Discussion Forums with Like-Minded Colleagues
- Weekly Assignments with Personalized Feedback
- 50 Comprehensive Articles

2018/19 Course Sessions

Fall

Oct 10 – Dec 18, 2018
Apply by Sept 26, 2018

Winter

Feb 6 – Apr 16, 2019
Apply by Jan 16, 2019

Spring

Mar 27 – Jun 4, 2019
Apply by Mar 13, 2019

Summer

Jun 12 – Aug 20, 2019
Apply by May 29, 2019

Weeks 1-2

The Advanced Student

- Strategies for mentoring advanced-level students and connecting technique to expressive intent

Week 3

Successful Piano Technique

- Strategies to integrate technique and artistry using etudes

Week 4

Musicianship

- Using improvisation and collaboration to develop musicianship skills

Week 5

Baroque Repertoire

- Teaching contrapuntal works using relevant historical performance practices

Week 6

Classical Repertoire

- Aspects of technique, rhythm, form, and style that support effective interpretation

Week 7

Romantic Repertoire

- Ways to inspire personal connections to 19th-century works through interdisciplinary exploration

Week 8

20th- and 21st-Century Repertoire

- Strategies to overcome key pedagogical challenges of contemporary repertoire

Weeks 9-10

RCM Certificate Program and Expanding Professionalism

- Nurturing student growth and fostering your own lifelong learning

Summative Portfolio

- A complete collection of assignments that showcase your achievement and extend your learning

To apply, please visit rcmusic.com/PianoTeacherCourses