1. Answer the following questions about the poem, The Dark, by Adrian Henri.

The Dark

by Adrian Henri

I don’t like the dark coming down on my head
It feels like a blanket thrown over the bed
I don’t like the dark coming down on my head

I don’t like the dark coming down over me
It feels like the room’s full of things I can’t see
I don’t like the dark coming down over me

There isn’t enough light from under the door
It only reaches the edge of the floor
There isn’t enough light from under the door

I wish that my dad hadn’t put out the light
It feels like there’s something that’s just out of sight
I wish that my dad hadn’t put out the light

But under the bedclothes it’s warm and secure
You can’t see the ceiling and you can’t see the floor
Yes, under the bedclothes it’s warm and secure
So I think I’ll stay here till its daylight once more.

(a) Suggest a grade-level for the poem, and describe the skills that a student should have in place before learning it.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
continued.....
Question 1 continued

b. Discuss TWO challenges presented by the poem, and explain your ideas for teaching them.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

(10)

c. Give a suggestion for effective staging/performance of the poem.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

(4)
2. Explain how you would deal with TWO of the following situations that might occur in your work with private speech arts and drama students.

a. A Grade 8 student consistently memorizes full-text manuscripts for public speeches and/or storytelling assignments.

b. A bright Grade 4 student performs proficiently, but lacks emotional and imaginative connection.

c. Introducing Shakespeare scenes to a Grade 7 boy who excels at public speaking, but who avoids dramatic or emotional repertoire.

d. A teenage beginner enrolled in lessons to build confidence has made steady progress, but is very anxious about performing at her first recital.
3. From your Teaching Repertoire Sample, choose TWO selections from the list below.

ONE List A piece
ONE List B piece
ONE List C piece
ONE List D piece

Give the title, author, and grade level for each piece, and answer the questions.

List A

Title ________________________________

Author ________________________________  Grade __________

State the type of verse: lyric, narrative, or dramatic ________________________________

Explain the elements of technique associated with performing this style of verse.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Discuss a creative approach to introducing your student to the poem.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

continued.....
Question 3 continued

List B

Title __________________________________________

Author _________________________________________ Grade __________

Give the context of the excerpt.

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Identify TWO challenges presented by the piece, and explain how you will help your student meet them.

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Describe the skills that would be developed through studying this work.

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________
Question 3 continued

List C

Title ____________________________________________
Author ____________________________________________  Grade __________
Give a brief summary of the scene.
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

Outline the learning process you will use in teaching the scene over a period of one month.
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

Explain a strategy you will employ to help your student create a unique concept of the character.
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

continued.....
Question 3 continued
List D
Title ____________________________________________
Author ____________________________________________ Grade _______
Give the context of the scene.
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________

Give the character’s motivation in the scene:
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________

Explain a strategy for helping your student bring the language of the scene to life.
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________

Describe a staging concept that will help your student realize the scene.
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
4. a. Write a brief essay on ONE of the following topics.

i. Give a set of exercises designed to help students achieve an expressive and flexible voice. Suggest one or two specific examples of repertoire that will enhance the development of vocal expression.

ii. Explain the importance of physical connection and energy in performance, and discuss strategies that will help a student tune their physical response to ideas and emotions.

continued.....
Question 4 continued

b. Give the information required for ONE of the following topics.
   i. Causes of stridency

   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

ii. Exercises designed to reduce breathiness

   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

continued.....
Question 4 continued

iii. Strategies for convincing a student that purposely uses a low, harsh tone to work in their natural pitch range

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

5. Answer TWO of the following questions.

a. Describe the role of storytelling in a program of speech study, and describe your suggestions for introducing this style of performance to students at the grade 5 level.

b. Discuss the importance of mime and movement studies, and explain how mime skills contribute to the overall success of a speech performer.

c. Outline a 6-week series of lesson plans designed to introduce a group of teenagers to public speaking.

d. Give your concept for a themed concert of group performances by students of varied ages. Give suggestions of repertoire, and discuss how the concert will enrich the learning of your students.